Live, Learn, Laugh... Love Lyndhurst

ATTENDANCE

Last week we managed to creep up a little bit with 94.17%. First place goes to Orinoco with a spectacular 100%, second goes to Hudson with 97.59% and third goes to Ganges with 96.67%. We're sure the figures will rise once we're back in January.

THEME OF THE WEEK

This week we have been "keeping calm" which is a most important theme this time of year! Next year we will be continuing with this theme as we come to the end of the autumn term.

TWITTER NEWS

We are very excited to launch the brand new Lyndhurst Twitter account. The feed will contain important news, celebratory messages and up to the minute updates on events and daily activities. Follow us now at @lyndhurstse5.

FOL NEWS

Please make sure you read the newsletter and minutes from the spending meeting held last week.

LIBRARY NEWS

We are excited to unveil the Lyndhurst Library Project webpage on our website - <https://lyndhurstprimaryschool.com/children/extra-curricular/library/>.

Here you can read about the aims of the project, see pictures of what we have in mind and keep up to date with our progress. If you are keen to donate books to the library, please take a look at the wishlist, which you can access from the webpage. If you do have any books you are ready to part with, please drop them to the office for Mrs Baldwin to collect. Thank you!

BOOK GIVEAWAY

We have a large number of books left over from the Winter Fair as well as lots of old and very well-loved classroom books which need new homes. Next week we will be running a Book Giveaway from 3.15pm until 3.45pm on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in the Lower Hall, for parents and carers to come and take books, free of charge or for a small, voluntary donation.

PERFORMANCES

Huge congratulations to our Early Years and KS1 for two wonderful performances this week. The children sang beautifully and acted confidently. Well done to all of you!
